Dillon Fillion Launches Campaign for HD 81, Pledging to Fight for Families, Public Safety, and Homeowners

Davenport, IA – March, 15 – Today, Dillon Fillion officially announces his candidacy for State Representative in House District 81, running on a bold platform to lower costs for working families, stand up for public safety, and protect homeownership and local values.

“Families in HD 81 are struggling with rising costs—from groceries to gas to property taxes,” said Fillion. “The last thing we need is more government interference making it worse. I will fight to lower taxes, cut wasteful spending, and put more money back in your pocket.”

As a strong advocate for law and order, Fillion pledges to back law enforcement, enforce tougher penalties for repeat offenders, and stop “soft-on-crime” policies that put families at risk. He is also committed to supporting veterans and military families, ensuring they receive the benefits and resources they deserve.

Homeownership is another top priority for Fillion. “Owning a home shouldn’t be out of reach for working families. I’ll push for property tax relief, stop reckless government spending, and protect homeowners from overreach that drives up costs,” he stated.

With a campaign focused on kitchen-table issues, Fillion is determined to bring common-sense, conservative leadership to Des Moines. He will fight for economic relief, safer communities, and policies that put families first—not political insiders.
